Description

A fine quality Antique 19th Century Pollard Oak Games / Card Table. This striking example features a beautifully figured pollard oak top with delicate beaded edging, folding open to reveal a rich green baize playing surface. The table rests on a wall-carved central column with acanthus leaf detail and bold lion paw feet, all standing on original brass castors. The craftsmanship and design reflect the elegance of the early Victorian period, making it ideal for both decorative and functional use. Perfect for use as a side table, console, or occasional games table, this piece has character and warmth to any interior. Dimensions: Height: 79cm Width: 92cm Depth: 46cm
