Description

This lovely bed has delightfully detailed carving throughout. The foot end has a triptych of rural imagery which has a charming and evocative feel to it, portraying the life and culture in Brittany. The panels have a lovely geometric carving surrounding the edges. A lovely bed which is sturdy, practical and beautiful. The bottom of the foot end has gorgeous foliate carving and a lovely crest which sits centrally. This is also carried through onto the siderails. The carvings on traditional Breton beds are not naive in the sense of lacking skill, rather their distinctive style is a result of regional folk craftsmanship. This style prioritises storytelling and family identity. We have lovingly restored this bed, repairing where needed, cleaning and generally restoring to be a beautiful and practical heirloom piece. Head Height 134cm Foot Height 99.5cm Side Rail Height 28cm Overall Width 150cm Overall Length 211cm Truly a very handsome bed indeed, which we have cleaned and restored to ensure a solid and sturdy bed. This bed happily takes a UK modern double mattress 4'6" x 6'3" / 135cm x 190cm. Whole bed has been checked and sympathetically restored to ensure so...
