Description

This is an antique display table. An English, burr walnut and mahogany four seat oval centre table, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840. An exceptional example, showcasing a striking top and elegant base, steeped in 19th century craftsmanship. Select burr walnut and mahogany stocks present fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Oval top with quarter bookmatched burr walnut creating superb visual interest. Serpentine wavy edge lends a touch of grace and refinement to the side profile. Turned and gadrooned supports elegantly unite the top with the base. Squat cabriole legs at each corner with leaf-carved knees and toes enhancing the classical aesthetic. Turned and cupped stretcher rail, finished in a faux rosewood manner for visual distinction. Riding smoothly upon inset brass castors, allowing ease of movement. Displays a wonderful aged patina, the hallmark of quality, early Victorian furniture. This is a superb antique display or centre table, distinguished by its beautiful burr walnut top and ornate craftsmanship. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
