Description

A beautiful Victorian mahogany dressing table mirror, dating to around 1880, featuring a gracefully curved swivel mirror supported by elegant scroll-carved uprights. The mirror sits on a richly figured mahogany serpentine base with a moulded edge and original hand-polished finish that showcases the warm patina of the wood. The mirror retains its original glass, now attractively aged with characteristic foxing, adding to its authentic antique charm. Good antique condition — structurally solid, minor surface marks and age-related patina on the mahogany, some wear to the mirror plate consistent with age.
