Description

A Rare Blue-Glazed 'Double-Gourd' Vase Qing Dynasty, Daoguang Mark and of the Period (1821–1850) This exceptional piece is a classic example of monochrome porcelain, perfectly scaled as a cabinet size vessel. Form & Symbolism: The vase is elegantly potted in the auspicious 'double-gourd' (Hulu) form, a shape strongly associated with longevity, wealth, and prosperity (Fulu). Glaze: Covered overall in a rich, dark navy blue monochrome glaze, known historically as 'Sacrificial Blue' (Jilan). The dense, even colour and high lustre are hallmarks of Imperial quality. Mark: The base is inscribed with the critically important Imperial six-character seal mark of the Daoguang Emperor (1821–1850) in underglaze blue, clearly enclosed within a double-circle, a convention signifying high-quality production from the kilns at Jingdezhen. Condition: Excellent antique condition, with the glaze neatly stopped above the foot ring, revealing a white glazed base. Dimensions: 16 cm (6.3 inches) high. A truly rare and desirable piece for the discerning collector of Qing Dynasty ceramics. The inclusion of "clearly enclosed within a double-circle" adds technical authenticity and appeal to...
