

SA1177485

Victorian Cornucopia sugar
caster/sifter , Horace
Woodward & CO LTD, London
1898

Price

GBP 875

| USD $1,184 | EUR 1,024

Item Reference: SA1177485

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Dimensions

Height = 13.5 cm (5.3")

Description

A fine Victorian cornucopia shaped sugar sifter/caster with embossed floral and foliate decoration. Gilded interior supported by twin legs the cartouche engraved WS-MM JAN 1896 - 1911, on scroll feet terminating with serpent head. 13.5cm high weighing approx. 201g. Hallmarks good see photo dating the piece to 1898, assayed in London. in overall very good condition. Horace Woodward & Co Ltd Horace Woodward & Co Ltd is well known for its production of silver, sterling silver and electroplate commodities from the mid 19th Century, to the early 20th Century. Horace Woodard & Co Ltd are the successors to Cartwright & Hiron, Cartwright, Hiron & Woodard, Cartwright & Woodward and Horace Woodward (& Co). The firm was established around 1850, in Birmingham by George Cartwright and Joseph Hiron, known as Cartwright & Hiron. In 1853, Horace Woodward joined the firm, the firm then changed its name to Cartwright, Hiron & Woodward. Six years later, Joseph Hiron left, and the name changed to Cartwright & Woodward. George Cartwright retired in 1865. The firm did continue with Horace Woodward, becoming Horace Woodward & Co. In 1883 Horace Woodward left the firm. The firm carried...

Seller Details

Country House Fine Art

Yorkshire United Kingdom

Tel: 01653 699 780 or 07771 714 575

International Tel: +44 1653 699 780 or +44 7771 714 575