Description

An exceptionally Rare CJ Maons Semi China Blue and White Transfer Supper Set 1835 In the Fountain Pattern, this is an exceptionally rare item to find, and the first time that I have had a supper set on a ceramic tray, they are usually set into wooden trays with brass handles. All pieces are there, which is also quite a rare find. 1 Lid has been restored, you can see in the images, two corners of curved bottom dishes have been restored, the base tray, has two very small 1-inch hairlines restored on the side. As this is an exceptionally rare item, restoration is not overly an issue. It can be restored to looking perfect. I have made an allowance in the price if a collector would wish to do this, but currently I am selling it as is. Measures 50x37x15 cms
