Description

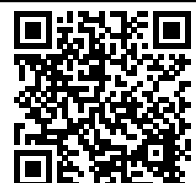

A stunning pair of Swedish Art Deco armchairs in satin birch. These were recently imported from Sweden, they date from the 1930's period. They are beautifully made with a gorgeous design. These have lovely curves that run all the way from the backs, down the arms and to the feet. They are supportive, fully sprung and very comfortable, they look amazing from all angles. The satin birch frames have been re-polished and are in great condition for their age, with just some incredibly minor historical wear beneath the polish. We have also had these newly upholstered in our cream cotton fabric. The overall condition is excellent.
