

SA1177829

Taxidermy- Roach by James Jones of London Dated 1909

Price

GBP 750

| USD $1,023 | EUR 875

Item Reference: SA1177829

Date of manufacture: 1910

Dimensions

Height = 29 cm (11.4")

Width = 47 cm (18.5")

Description

A fine bow fronted gilt-edged stuffed fish case, unopened, and retaining its original tape. Complete with trade label, pasted to inside of case for this noted taxidermist 'preserved by J. Jones 20, Malt St, Old Kent Road'. Additionally, there is a data label (an unusual addition with this taxidermist) pasted to the top right, carrying the legend "Roach taken by G. Cruttwel at Amberley. Nov 1909. Weight 1lb. 91/2oz" 47cm Wide x 29cm High. For mor information on this noted London fish taxidermist see 'The Doomsday Book of Fish Taxidermists" by Barry Williams. The following is an extract: Cases by Jones don't come on to the market very often, but when they do they are usually of good quality.

Internal Ref: 25719

Seller Details

Kendall House Antiques Ltd.

Kendall House High Street Chipping Campden Gloucestershire GL55
6AG 7 United Kingdom

Tel: 07880 602715

International Tel: +44 7880 602715

