An extremely rare silver gravy ladle dating from the Georgian period and assayed at the Irish Provincial Office of Cork. This splendid example is in Old English pattern and has a graceful curved handle. Adding to the desirability, is the Maker's mark CT/IW for Carden Terry and Jane Williams. Williams was the widow of Carden Terry's partner and their mark was struck 1807-1821. With so much flatware now melted for scrap this is a desirable find, particularly for collectors of Irish Provincial silver. A fine piece with a practical use. Dimensions below.
