Description

A nice clean, attractive wall clock with hourly striking on a bell. The golden oak case is nicely polished, offering a welcome change to the more traditional dark mahogany cases one often associates with this style of clock. It has a white painted dial with black Roman numerals and interestingly shaped hands. It has a brass bezel. The 8 day movement has just been fully serviced by our BHI registered horologist and carries our usual 12 mths full parts and labour guarantee. The clock strikes the number of hours on the hour, on a bell, with a lovely mellow resonating tone. A rare opportunity to acquire a striking wall clock at very little money. All cards accepted. Delivery available Worldwide.
