Description

Here's a very handsome Swedish antique dome-top chest, beautifully framed with decorative metal strap-work. It's a neat and well-preserved piece, featuring a curved lid that opens smoothly and is safely supported when raised. The chest has sturdy carrying handles on both ends and is empty inside. The lock is present but without a key, and there's evidence of an earlier lock fitting on the opposite side. A small brass plaque on the front reads "Torsten Ekblom." The piece dates from around 1920, possibly a little earlier. It's in lovely condition throughout — even the back is tidy — so it would look wonderful placed in the centre of a room. The chest has already been wax finished and is ready for use. Price: £427 Dimensions: height 25", width 41", depth 18" (approximately 64 cm x 104 cm x 46 cm).
