Description

A beautiful and well proportioned antique mahogany occasional side table, made in England and dating from around the 1900-1910 period. It is of superb quality and is a very useful item. The flower shaped top has a slightly lipped and beaded edges, it sits on an elegant yet sturdy base with a fluted central column. The tripod legs have crisp acanthus leaf carving at the knees, terminating in claw and ball feet. We have had this recently re-polished, the condition is excellent for its age, with just some minor wear remaining here and there, commensurate for age.
