Description

A George III Mahogany and Boxwood Inlaid Washstand, Late 18th Century. A fine George III period mahogany washstand, inlaid with boxwood stringing and displaying a warm, well-developed patina. The folding top opens to reveal an inset, retractable mirror and a fitted interior. Below lies a tambour-fronted section, shaped apron, and pull-out commode compartment, all supported on elegant square chamfered legs. The piece exemplifies the refined craftsmanship and discreet utility characteristic of late 18th-century English furniture design. Compact and well-proportioned, this washstand would make a handsome addition to both period and contemporary interiors, serving equally well as a bedside, occasional, or decorative piece. Dimensions (Approximate): Height: 86.25 cm (34") Width: 45.75 cm (18") Depth: 48 cm (19") Condition: The washstand is in good condition for its age, structurally sound and complete. The mahogany displays a rich colour and attractive patina, with boxwood inlay intact. Minor surface marks and age-related blemishes are present, with old running repairs to the legs and apron. Complete with chamber pot and lid. Ready for display or light functional use. As w...
