Description

Oak Arts & Crafts Astra Glazed Wall-Hanging Corner Display Cabinet A charming early 20th-century Arts and Crafts corner cabinet, crafted in oak and incorporating 18th- and 19th-century reclaimed timbers. The piece features twin glazed doors enclosing three fitted internal shelves, framed by a moulded plinth and base. Its angular form allows it to sit neatly into a corner, making it a practical and decorative addition to both period and contemporary interiors. Displaying the honest craftsmanship and simplicity of the Arts and Crafts movement, this cabinet retains a pleasing warm patina and subtle variations in tone and grain from its reclaimed materials. Perfect for displaying ceramics, glassware, or collectibles, it combines utility with the distinctive character of early 20th-century English design. Dimensions (Approximate): Height: 77 cm (30 ¼") Width (front): 63.5 cm (25") Depth (front to back): 38.25 cm (15") Rear corner to side edge: 44.5 cm (17 ½") Condition: This corner cupboard is in very good condition for its age—structurally sound and sturdy throughout. Made, at least in part, from 18th- and 19th-century reclaimed timbers. Minor marks and blemishes are pres...
