

SA1178082

17th Century Rectangular Oak Joint Stool

Price

GBP 2,285

| USD $3,086 | EUR 2,673

Item Reference: SA1178082Date of manufacture: 17th Century

Description

A Very Charming Mid 17th Century, Charles II Period, Oak Joint Stool Of Pegged Construction, Plus Untouched Colour & Patina Throughout, Having Rectangular Moulded Top Over Turned Upright Supports With Original Straight Stretchers. Sometimes referred to as coffin stools (although this was much more of a 19th century trend for their usage as opposed to their original purpose in earlier times) the humble antique joint stool was by far the most common form of seating in 16th and 17th century England. Indeed they were made in relatively vast quantities and almost every house would have a selection of them on hand in a variety of difference sizes and heights so that they could be used as required. This antique oak joint stool is a nice example, retaining excellent colour and surface and has very little restoration to speak of. Naturally due to their age and fucntion it is common to find significant restoration on many of these items. In the modern home they still serve the same variety of purposes as they were originally made for, allowing one to use them in many different seating situations, or even as a simple occasional or side table. There are no structural defects or a...

Internal Ref: 9298

Seller Details

S and S Timms Antiques Ltd

PO BOX 813 Ampthill Bedfordshire MK45 9AW United Kingdom

Tel: 01525 719300 or 07801 428701 (24 HRS)

International Tel: +44 1525 719300 or 07801 428701 (24 HRS)

