Description

A Good Quality George III Period Mahogany Wine Table, Having Well Figured Circular Tilting Top With Elegant Reeded Edge, Raised On Turned Central Column Terminating With Elegant Reeded Tripod Legs And Turned Ball Feet. Simple, but effective would be a great way to describe this charming little georgian occasional lamp table. It is constructed using good quality mahogany timber and the overall cabinet making is of a high level. Touches like the reeded edge to the top and legs add an extra level of sophistication as well as the unusual feature on a table this small of the tilting top. The perfect size for an absolute host of spaces around the home, it is both beautiful and practical. It would work just as well alongside a sofa or library chair in the living room to place a drinks glass on top of, as it would in the drawing room with a lamp perched atop, or even in the bedroom as a bedside table. As with all our items this table has been attended to in our workshops by our highly trained, skilled, traditional antique furniture restorers, before being offered for sale, meaning it has received any work required to ensure it is ready to place straight into the home, including...
