Description

This is a very stylish Arts & Crafts style chandelier in the manner of W.A.S. Benson circa 1890. The chandelier is in perfect condition with pressed brass design and three light fittings with attractive frosted satin glass shades. This has been rewired recently with modern cable so is ready to be professionally installed in the home. It takes 3 standard large bayonet fitting bulbs. William Arthur Benson (1854-1924) was a British designer active in the Arts & Crafts movement and an exponent of electrical lighting design. He is regarded as the greatest British Arts & Crafts lighting designer. The chandelier measures 42 cms in height overall by 32 cms in diameter with the shades being 11 cms in diameter. UK insured packing and delivery is £20
