Description

A finely matched pair of Japanese Kyoto-school Satsuma vases signed Hakusan (??), produced c. 1890-1915. Each vase displays an elegant ovoid body with gently flared rim and a brocade shoulder border composed of fan-shaped panels filled with diaper and wave motifs in blue, apricot, and gilt. Beneath, cascading wisteria blooms frame scenes of bijin and children strolling among chrysanthemums and reeds. The painting is crisp, the palette harmonious, and the gold lavishly but precisely applied with fine moriage highlights. Bases carry neat black-and-gold Hakusan cartouches. Measurements • Height 15 cm / 5.9" • Diameter 7.1 cm / 2.8" • Weight 223 g and 229 g Condition UV-checked: no cracks, repairs, or repainting. Light rubbing to gilt on rim edges only. Displays beautifully as an authentic, original pair. Shipping & Packaging Fully tracked and insured delivery. Shipping cost includes professional packaging, careful handling, and secure postage. Carefully packed using recycled materials where possible. Please study all photographs as they form part of the description. Questions are welcome.
