A Post-War Vickers Armstrong Wellington Bomber WWII RAF Oil Painting Brief Description: This is a wonderful Original Oil on Board Painting depicting a Vickers Armstrong Wellington Bomber being prepared for its next sortie. The fabulously detailed painting portrays a small group of RAF personnel loading the Wellington with large bombs. A senior female military officer can be seen overseeing the procedure, whilst, in the distance, a fuel lorry prepares to serve another bomber. Circa 1950-1960, and signed, Harold Steward, lower-left corner. Mounted within a gilt moulded frame, and ready to hang immediately. Attributes: Oil on Board Signed: 'Harold Steward' Circa: 1950-1960 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall wonderful original condition. The artist board is slightly bent and warped, but certainly nothing which detracts, and is mentioned more so for accuracy.
