Description

A charming early Victorian chaise longue, circa 1840, featuring lovely light green upholstery in good, presentable condition. The piece is ready to be enjoyed as is or offers an excellent opportunity for reupholstery to suit the buyer's choice of fabric — upholstery services can be arranged at an additional cost. This elegant chaise showcases a beautifully crafted rosewood frame with finely turned legs, each fitted with brass castors for ease of movement. The gently scrolled arm and deep buttoned backrest add a touch of classic sophistication. Overall, this is a lovely example in good condition, offering both comfort and style.
