Description

Superb blue and white charger in excellent antique condition. Decorated with a detailed landscape scene at its centre, depicting pagoda-style buildings, a bridge, and a pair of birds in flight, hallmarks of the romantic Willow pattern, which blends Chinese-inspired motifs with English decorative tradition. Crafted in durable Mason's Patent Ironstone the deep blue glaze remains vibrant, and the transfer work is crisp and well-aligned, suggesting an early and high-quality production. A striking decorative piece, it would serve beautifully as a wall-mounted accent, a centrepiece on a sideboard, or a collector's highlight in a curated grouping of blue and white ceramics.
