Description

A handsome set of four solid oak dining chairs, dating from the early 20th century, featuring tall slatted backs, turned front legs, and sturdy stretchers for added stability. The craftsmanship and warm patina of the oak reflect traditional English design, combining timeless style with durability. Each chair is fitted with a floral tapestry seat, showcasing a beautiful vintage pattern in muted tones of rose, green, and cream. Both the frames and upholstery are in very good condition, making this set ready for everyday use or display in a period interior. Seat height: 47 cm. Frames in very good condition — solid and stable. Upholstery clean and in very good condition with minimal wear.
