Description

A classic Victorian dining or hall chair featuring a mahogany balloon-shaped backrest with finely curved rails, tapered turned front legs, and a comfortably upholstered drop-in seat. The upholstery is in good condition and the wooden frame appears solid and stable. Seat height: 44 cm Very good overall – the frame is stable, the finish retains a warm patina, and the upholstery shows moderate wear consistent with its age. Minor signs of use add character without detracting from presentation.
