Description

A superb antique 20th-century set of 14 oak dining chairs, very well made and of good quality throughout. Each chair stands on sturdy legs with a supporting stretcher and features solid frames, ensuring both strength and durability. The seats and backs are upholstered in the distinguished Prince of Wales feather design, finished with decorative brass pins around the edges for a refined and classic touch. Crafted from fine oak, the chairs display a gorgeous grain and warm, rich colour throughout. In good condition, this desirable set of 14 single chairs combines elegance, comfort, and traditional craftsmanship—perfect for adding style, character, and timeless charm to any dining room or home.
