Description

A very fine 19th Century Country House oil on canvas painting of massive proportions, the painting has been cleaned with the frame restored and is attributed to George Morland (1763 - 1804). This fantastic painting depicts a figural coastal scene featuring sailers and merchants, boats, a horse and cart within an exquisitely detailed coastal landscape of the beach with a fabulous sea, rolling hills, a castle and a stunning skyline and is set within a finely hand carved, moulded and fluted giltwood frame with beautiful richly trailing foliate, scrolls and flowerhead motif detail throughout.
