Description

A charming 19th century pine drop-leaf side table with an attractive mellow tone and pleasing grain. The table features a central frieze drawer flanked by two similar drawers, each fitted with later brass ring pull handles. It stands on well-turned legs and includes two drop leaves, supported by pull-out brackets, allowing the surface to extend when required. A versatile and elegant piece, ideal for use as a console or serving table. Item Ref; M-6465 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 79cm / Width closed– 83.5cm / Width extended - 128cm / Depth – 42.5cm / Kneehole Height – 64cm / Kneehole Width - 26cm . CONDITION REPORT: In rustic condition throughout with signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. There is some loss to the beading on front of central drawer, but this does not detract from the overall appeal. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the des...
