Description

A charming and impeccable little wall clock, full of character. The honey coloured walnut case is beautifully polished, retaining its original french-polished finish, and with a lovely, warm, rich patina. It is further enhanced by painted floral decoration to the door sides and base which elevates it above the norm for this style of clock. The white, enamelled dial has black Roman numerals with interspaced red fluer-de-lis markers and a brass centre and surround. As with the rest of the clock, it is in pristine condition. The 8 day movement, by the World renowned maker HAC, strikes on the half-hour and the hour. It has just been fully serviced by our BHI registered horologist and carries our usual 12mths full parts and labour guarantee. It has a brass pendulum and enameled beat counter, both in perfect condition. A little gem. Worldwide delivery. All cards accepted.
