Description

Clockwise is delighted to welcome into stock this lovely eight day Victorian carriage clock with a beautiful bell strike and repeat function, dating from circa 1870. The restored brass case is in fantastic condition as are the five bevelled glasses and the clock retains its vanity plate to the underside of the base. The rack-striking movement has a lever platform and has just been serviced and cleaned so benefits from my three year guarantee. The platform balance wheel has a dynamic action and the full hours are struck every hour with a single strike at every half hour. Original spade hands compliment the immaculate dial. This is a stunning clock with a three year warranty - no short guarantees or part restorations that other retailers offer - looking for its new forever home. Clockwise specialises in longcase and bracket clocks and with clients from the world of business, film, sport, royalty and aristocracy - yet more than happy with traditional clients - Clockwise has an unrivalled reputation for excellence and superb service. The height measurement below of 7 inches is to the upturned handle.
