Description

Found recently in Mashad in north-eastern Iran, this charming 'namakdan' (salt-bag) comprises a variety of animals and birds on the diagonal bands of red and mid-blue natural colours. On the reverse, the natural un-dyed ivory wool contains three horizontal bands of quadrupeds - possibly representing deer or gazelle. Woven in plain-weave by Milanlu Kordi nomads in the region of Darreh Gaz, Khorassan province, north-eastern Persia circa 1920s, the bag, which was designed to contain rock-salt and nuts, is in excellent condition. Size: 45cm x 27cm (1' 6" x 10.5").
