Description

A charming Georgian ash child's armchair; the shaped top rail above a baluster back and swept arms which have been beautifully worn with use; having a rush seat and raised on turned legs terminating in pad feet which are united by turned stretchers. Circa 1740. This antique child's chair retains a beautifully untouched colour and patina. The wear to the arms is particularly attractive and the patination has brought out the figuring of the ash. This antique child's armchair is available to view at our London antique shop on Kensington Church Street. We ship worldwide.
