Description

A fabulous 1910s brass 3 fold vanity mirror featuring beautifully detailed lion finials and a rich red velvet backing. The mirror comprises three hinged panels, allowing it to fold and angle as desired, ideal for dressing or display. The frame is crafted in solid brass with decorative neoclassical details, including fluted columns and a small cast ornament along the lower edge. This piece would have originally graced a fine dressing table or shop counter, offering both elegance and practicality. Today, it makes a striking addition to a dressing room, retail display, or interior setting in need of a touch of early 20th century glamour. H: 56 W: 85cm (open) 45cm (closed) D: 5 cm
