Description

A beautifully made late 1920s brass dressing mirror, set on a polished artificial green onyx base with soft veining and natural variations. The mirror tilts within a brass frame supported by fluted columns topped with urn finials, combining neoclassical detailing with the clean geometry of early Art Deco design. A versatile piece that works equally well on a dressing table, shop display, or as a decorative accent in the home. H: 50 W: 32 D: 11 cm 2 available for £288 each.
