Description

A Substantial 19th Century Button Leather Museum Gallery Bench 270cm, AF. An impressive brown studded-leather, substantial country house hallway or most likely museum gallery bench of considerable proportion, measuring 270cm wide. A superbly constructed, mahogany frame bench seat retains excellent structural integrity, it sits well and remains firm to sit on, the leather is in mostly good original condition, albeit some scuffs and tears as featured in photos, all distress to the leather are easily repairable but sold AF, as found. A magnificent country house hallway bench, or viewing gallery bench from a typical 19th century museum or art gallery, the bench is 85cm wide which allows up to 5-6 people comfortably on each side. Dimensions Length 270cm Width 85cm Height 72cm max height to end arms. A handsome antique bench of versatile use and appeal for a large home or business. The lower section is upholstered in a tartan fabric, this probably started life as leather. Please request more photos and any questions invited. Free collection from East Sussex. U.K. delivery available. We can recommend a whole of U.K. weekly delivery service £120, please enquire for Sco...
