Description

A fine mid-19th century walnut tall chest of drawers, circa 1860. This elegant piece is crafted in two stacking sections for ease of transport and features seven drawers, each faced with beautifully figured walnut veneers and divided by contrasting ebonised mouldings. The rich grain patterns and warm colouring highlight the quality of the timber. All drawers retain their original brass escutcheons and are operated by a single working key that fits every lock. The chest stands on turned front feet and bracket rear supports. W 101cm (40") D 50cm (19.5") H 159cm (62.5")
