Description

A very pretty early 19th century Georgian mahogany tea caddy of oval shape and with decorative inlays to the front and a bone escutcheon. It has both internal covers though the original linings have been replaced with purple paper. Condition: There are some losses to the chequered inlay on the front panel, and also to the panel on the rear. The finish on the rear is a little dull, and there is some slight degradation to the finish on the lid, though this isn't very noticeable. The internal paper linings are a little worn. Overall a very attractive tea caddy. Dimensions: Width - 33.5cm Depth - 15.7cm Height - 14.2cm Free UK delivery - the item will be sent using a tracked and signed for service.
