Description

A seriously impressive antique mahogany bergère suite, consisting of a large sofa and two deep armchairs. Crafted from beautifully toned mahogany that has that warm walnut-style colour we all love, this suite is loaded with character and high-quality carving. Each arm terminates in a finely carved bird/eagle head, a rare decorative feature that instantly makes the suite stand out. The cushions retain their original green damask velvet upholstery, giving it that proper vintage gentleman's-club aesthetic. Heavy, solid, and beautifully built — this is real craftsmanship, not modern throwaway furniture. Key Features Solid mahogany frames with rich, warm walnut-style colouring. Stunning carved bird/eagle head arms. Original green damask velvet upholstery. Deep seats and wide proportions — extremely comfortable. Elegant carved fronts, scrolls, foliate details, and claw-and-ball feet. A real statement suite for a library, living room, office, hotel lounge or film set. Condition Structurally solid and stable. Age-related wear is present, and there is damage to the cane panels, Common on bergère suites of this age. If you want to modernise or elevate the look, this set would...
