Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 2.48 carat diamond and platinum halo pendant; part of our expansive 1920s jewellery collection. This stunning antique diamond pendant has been crafted in platinum. The pierced decorated, circular-shaped frame displays a feature suspended claw set 1.70ct Old European cut diamond. The surrounding halo-style millegrain scalloped decorated frame is ornamented with twenty pavé set diamonds, in a combination of Old European and eight cuts. The scalloped setting suspends from a collet set Old European round cut diamond, completing the design. The reverse of the setting bears an additional arched frame to support the articulating feature diamond; this indicates the high quality of the piece. The pendant suspends from a 16" chain via two ring loops to the upper border and secures with a conventional spring-loaded lobster clasp fastening to the reverse. This antique diamond necklace has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum. The pendant is supplied with an IDGL diamond grading certificate for the feature diamond, in addition to an IDGL diamond grading report card for ...
