Description

This beautiful late Victorian ring is finely crafted in rich 18-carat yellow gold and set with a trio of vibrant Kashmir-blue sapphires framed by four old-cut diamonds. The gemstones are arranged in a graceful boat-shaped setting, a style beloved in the 19th century for its elegance and romantic charm. The softly scrolling shoulders add further refinement, demonstrating the attention to detail characteristic of fine Victorian jewellery. This classic design sits beautifully on the finger – a wonderful example of the enduring appeal of antique gemstone rings.
