Description

Pair of highly decorative C19th Italian Venetian rococo style polychrome and carved gilt-wood decorated mirrors in the C18th taste. The cream ground cartouche shaped carved frames with polychrome painted decoration having floral details and carved flower-head carved edges. The tops with elaborate carved rococo style pierced decoration. Each with an etched mirror plate, the centres respectively with male and female figures depicted in period style costume. In excellent original condition, having achieved an aged period-style surface to the decoration and gilding. Minor losses and age related shrinkage cracks to frames. The plates with some atmospheric degradation and 'foxing' and speckling. The versos fitted with original back-boards. A flamboyant and stylish pair of C18th style Venetian mirrors to add both symmetry and glamour to an interior. H 36" W 24" D 4"
