Description

This is a superb example of an English mahogany mantel clock by the premier clockmaker Elliott. This is was one of Elliotts top models with full westminster chimes, with chime silence and nighttime silence control, the mellow sound resonates beautifully. The mahogany case has a wonderful rich colour and patina and the grain really does shine through, this is complimented by the original bronzed dial with a contrasting silver chapter ring. There are decorative spandrels to each corner of the dial and a central floral motif , the square glass is in perfect condition. The movement is an outstanding piece of engineering and is totally original, it is one of the finest clock movements you will ever see. The movement has just undergone a full overhaul, clean and service by Alan Williams of Plymouth clocks, who is a fellow of the British Horological Institute with over 40 years experience working with high quality clocks so you can be assured that this clock is in tip top condition and will give trouble free service for many years to come. The clock comes with its original. It is keeping accurate time to within 1 minute a week. Overall this is an outstanding clock in super...
