Description

Early Heals Edwardian Antique Oak Wardrobe – Labelled A super quality, solid oak wardrobe by Heals of London around 1900. An early model, only a handful of these were ever made, this Heals wardrobe model is listed in the original Heals catalogues, please see the images, and this piece is also stamped by the maker. In excellent, clean and very honest condition, made is quarter sawn oak that has a wonderful grain and the wardrobe is the original colour / finish. To the top is a simple moulded cornice with a shaped full length mirror door beneath, ideal for dressing. To the bottom is a deep long storage drawer that runs smoothly and is clean inside. Complete with all the original handles and the locks which are stamped by Heals. Inside are the original brass hanging hooks and a hanging clothes rail, inside the door is also a hanging rail, perfect for smaller items. A lovely example, quite a rare model. Dimensions Height: 183cm (72.62") Width: 99cm (39.29") Depth: 44cm (17.46")
