Description

An 18th-century oak dresser base with a good, deep colour. The arrangement consists of three drawers over three central short drawers and a pair of panelled cupboard doors. The dresser retains its period brass knobs and shaped wooden escutcheons. The front is decorated with moulded details typical of the period and stands on bracket feet. Item Reference: M-6340 . Dimensions: Height - 90cm / Width - 149cm / Depth - 50cm CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches throughout the piece. There are historic marks along the top where the plate rack has been historically removed. Drawers open and close smoothly. Structurally solid and sound. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos.
