Description

This is an intricate and exquisitely made antique pair of English Victorian silver plated centrepieces by the renowned silversmiths Elkington & Co., dated 1887. Each of these stunning sculptural epergne stands has a wonderful central oval fluted dish which is supported by a magnificently seated Bacchic cherub holding the urn. The base is further embellished with superb matching chased acanthus leaves and flowers, on four fabulous chased feet. The underside of each centrepiece bears the makers' mark and the impressed stamp of Elkington and Co dating them to 1887. A lot of intricate detailing has gone into the creation of this beautiful pair, they are extremely well designed and attractive items that can only grow in value. Condition: In excellent condition with clear makers marks and no dings, dents or signs of repair. Please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 20.5 cm x Width 25 cm x Depth 18 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 8 inches x Width 10 inches x Depth 7 inches. Elkington & Co was a silver manufacturer from Birmingham, England.
