Description

A characterful English oak gateleg table with beautiful carved roundels around the top. The rich medium-dark oak grain and turned legs give it real country-house charm while the drop-leaf design makes it practical for smaller spaces. Turned legs joined by stretchers, standing firmly and evenly. Width open 104 cm. Very good vintage condition. Strong and stable, with light surface marks and patina from age and use that add to its character. Ready to place in your home.
