Description

A beautifully large English solid sterling silver pyx or wafer box. It is hallmarked for London 1962 with the makers mark being AS. It has been superbly designed being engraved with a cross and the inside being gilded. It is in superb condition being free from dings splits holes and repairs, the lid is loose fitting so more for a table than to be carried around. It measures approx. 2.5 inches (6.3cm) across by over 1 inch (2.7cm) tall and weighs 64 grams. A very nice quality piece.
