Description

A Nice Art Deco Silver-Plated Cocktail Shaker with internal perforated strainer for easy pouring without ice or fruit pulp escaping. Made by the renowned maker Arthur Price, England. This silver-plated cocktail shaker comes with a measuring jigger - a stylish miniature vessel with a side handle for precise and easy pouring. * A fine example of 1930s barware, it combines elegant design with practical function - perfect for mixing martinis, Manhattans, or any vintage-inspired cocktail. Measurements: Height: 8" (approx. 20cm) Diameter: 3 1/2" (approx. 9cm) Total weight: 378g In good condition – Silver plating remains bright with only light age-appropriate surface wear. Jigger is intact and fully functional. Interior shows gentle use but no major dents or damage.
