Description

A desirable example of a French 19th century commode in cherry wood with a loose marble top, this is a quality piece of antique furniture. It continues to provide a functional and attractive storage solution as a chest of drawers, along with a great display surface for silver, art or flowers. - Grey marble with white veining and pinkish tones, lighter in colour towards the right side. - 3 drawers. - Canted corners, with fluted pilasters and a carved flower motif at the top. - Tapered, fluted legs. - No locks, with faux escutcheons. In good condition showing wear consistent with age and use. There are minor nibbles at the marble edges, predominantly along the back and at the right front corner, but these are small and unobtrusive. Some signs of historical woodworm are present, particularly in the drawer bases. Date: Circa 1880 Material: Cherry Wood Origin: France Height – 89 cm Width – 133 cm Depth – 65 cm
