Description

A gorgeous Victorian double ended perfume/ scent bottle, with repoussé silver mounts. This lovely example has a body of Bristol green overlay, cut through in attractive geometric port hole patterns. One end is mounted with a hinged lid and glass stopper and the other has a screw top lid with cork seal. A charming and decorative collectors piece. Dimensions below. Postage and packing :- £10.00 UK £20.00 Europe £24.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents to the silver and no cracks or chips to the glass. There are two small splits to the screw thread of the screw on lid, commensurate with age and use. These do not stop the lid tightening down and are photographed for clarity. Hallmarks :- Unmarked (not unusual for Victorian silver mounts). Origin :- English. Date :- c1880.
