Description

For your consideration is this truly fabulous & genuinely rare example Art Deco English display cabinet. We haven't had this design in quite a number of years so it is quite a rare find. A full circular cabinet sits on a half circular plinth. We've had the hinges oiled & serviced. The interior backing is original in colour which contrasts perfectly with the blonder wood exterior. There are three internal glass shelves, offering plenty of space to showcase your collections. The whole cabinet has been restored professionally by our team, so comes to you in showroom condition. No faults to note. Photographed in natural daylight for true colour representation. Free UK two man mainland delivery.
